

XIII. J.E.A. Crake Student Summer Fellowships for Creative and/or Research Projects

The Crake Foundation, established by the late J.E.A. Crake, Josiah Wood Professor of Classics and Head of the Classics Department from 1946 to 1976, offers Fellowships to enable Mount Allison students to engage in creative and/or research projects in the Humanities during the May–August period.

Terms and conditions

1. The Fellowships will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Research and Creative Activity following established policies and procedures for such fellowships.
2. The student must be registered in a program in the Humanities which is understood by the Foundation to include Canadian Studies, Classics, Drama, English, Fine Arts, History, Modern Languages, and Literatures, Music, Philosophy, Religious Studies and Women's and Gender Studies.
3. Other terms and conditions for the Fellowships will be consistent with those set by the Senate Committee on Research and Creative Activity for such awards.
4. Each fellowship holder will be supplied with a copy of the biographical information available at jeacrakefoundation.org/jea-crake-bio.
5. The Fellows are required to acknowledge the J.E.A. Crake Foundation in any publications or other works (including art works, musical compositions, plays, conference presentations, lectures etc.) arising from the award received. In addition the Foundation would appreciate being informed a week in advance of any public presentation/performance resulting from the award.

Procedures

1. The Provost will by May 31 provide the Foundation with the following information which has been received from the Senate Committee on Research and Creative Activity and the Controller, for each Fellow:

With regard to projects completed the previous summer

- 1.1. The name of the student, with a statement from the Financial Aid office of the degree program (including major area of study), the course load in the previous academic year, the session GPA, the cumulative GPA.
 - 1.2. A brief outline of project
 - 1.3. The name of supervising faculty
 - 1.4. A one-page summary by each Fellowship holder of work undertaken with the aid of the grant. The report should include information concerning how to gain access to the outcome of the grant.
 - 1.5. A statement from the Controller verifying that the funds in this account were spent in accordance with the terms and conditions stated, and the status of the account as of May 1.
2. The Foundation will inform the University by January 2 of the amount of funding that will be provided for the J.E.A. Crake Student Fellowships for Creative and/or Research projects for the period beginning May 1.

Value of the grant for five student fellowships, 2020: $37,500.

[December, 2020]